++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Clear spells and a few showers overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any lingering rain in the far east will quickly clear leaving a dry night for many with clear spells. However, scattered showers are likely, especially in the west and in coastal districts, these blown through on a strengthening wind. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Sunday:
Eastern parts will start Sunday mostly dry and bright. However, showers will already affect the west, and these will break out more widely during the day, turning heavy and blustery. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Further showers on Monday before heavy rain arrives in the evening. Showers and longer spells of rain on Tuesday, along with strong winds. Largely dry with bright spells on Wednesday.
